Northwest Iowa 4-H Scholarship Winners

Your support of the NW Iowa 4-H Golf Outing directly impacts local 4-H'ers. Money raised from this event goes towards college scholarships for graduating 4-H'ers from Northwest Iowa counties.

Meet the 2019 recipients:

Alex McDougall

Osceola

Alex will be attending Iowa State University this fall to major in agricultural education. In high school, she was also involved in church youth group, band, drama, FFA, and as a member of the local volunteer fire department. Her involvement in the 4-H program has been evident as a member of her county council, and a delegate to the state 4-H leadership conference. Her future goals are to work as a 4-H county youth coordinator somewhere in the state of Iowa. "Over these past nine years, I have developed a passion for Iowa 4-H that I hope will never diminish. 4-H has taught me valuable life skills through various projects and activities."

Kendall Snyder

Buena Vista

Kendall will be attending Dordt University this fall majoring in mechanical engineering. Upon graduation, he would like to stay involved in the agricultural industry with aspirations to travel and experience different cultures across the globe. Kendall is a member of the State 4-H Council and recalls some of his favorite memories at the annual 4-H leadership conference where he learned to jump out of his comfort zone. Additionally he's been involved in high school drama, FFA, and the National Honor Society. "I tried to take every opportunity I could and get involved in as many ways as possible because I felt like the best me when I was involved in 4-H."
