Northwest Iowa 4-H Scholarship Winners

Your support of the NW Iowa 4-H Golf Outing directly impacts local 4-H'ers. Money raised from this event goes towards college scholarships for graduating 4-H'ers from Northwest Iowa counties. Meet the 2021 recipients:

Lex Kassel Palo Alto County

Lex Kassel a 4-H'er from Palo Alto County is one of the recipients of the Northwest Iowa 4-H Scholarship. His parents are Craig and Debbie Kassel. Lex has been involved in 4-H since his Clover Kid days in kindergarden. His involvement in the Shooting Sports Club has allowed him to share his love for hunting and the shooting range sport. His 4-H involvement started small with learning to make new friends and grew into responsibilities of caring for livestock, leadership training, mastering public speaking skills and recognizing the merit of hard work. Lex will be studying agricultural business at Iowa State University.

Lex says, "I'm so thankful I have had a 4-H experience and cannot image my life or who I would be today without it."

Kylie Beelner Plymouth County

Kylie Beelner a 4-H'er from Plymouth County is the second recipient. Jacque and Matthew are her parents. 4-H projects allowed Kylie to learn many life skills that have helped her now, and will help her in the future. Her projects in Leadership and Citizenship taught her the importance of helping others. From managing money to job interview skills, 4-H will help her reach her goals for the rest of her life. Kylie will be focusing on communications studies at the University of Northern Iowa.

Kylie says, "4-H has taught me that I enjoy helping others in my community. I decided that I wanted to choose a profession that would allow me to help others."
