

The Seven Steps to a Great Thank-You Note

Why should you write a thank-you note?

- » To show appreciation for someone supporting you
- » To acknowledge a gift, donation or service
- » To provide recognition to someone who has done a good deed

When should you write a thank-you note?

- » After receiving any type of gift
- » After attending a job interview
- » After someone donates to a cause in your name
- » After someone goes above and beyond the expected
- » After someone writes a letter of recommendation for you
- » After someone helps you with a project or endeavor
- » If you want to make a good impression
- » If you are unsure of whether or not to write a thank-you note (Write one!)

How should you write a thank-you note?

A good thank-you note has seven main components:

Dear Aunt Sara,

Thank you for the wonderful sweater you sent me for Christmas. I appreciate your thinking of me at the holidays. I look forward to wearing the sweater this winter as it always gets cold here in Michigan. I am having a great 8th grade year and am playing on the basketball team this spring. I am looking forward to that! Thanks again for thinking of me!

*Love,
Katie*

- 1 A greeting to the thank-you note recipient (Dear . . .)
- 2 The specific reason you are thanking them (Mention what they bought, gave or did. This is always important to do first.)
- 3 The reason why you appreciate them (They supported you, were thoughtful and gave a gift, went out of their way to help you out or other reasons.)
- 4 How you plan to use the gift or why the gift or act of service was important to you (You will use it to save for college; you really enjoy playing the game; you can't wait to go shopping with the gift card; you know you have a great chance at the scholarship because of the letter of recommendation — or other ways.)
- 5 A comment or detail about yourself, an update on your life or a positive comment (This is a great time to share news on your life or to add a positive remark about the recipient.)
- 6 A repeat of your thank-you (You may leave this out if you sign “with thanks” at your closing.)
- 7 A closing and signature of your name (With thanks, Name or Sincerely, Name)

Your note should be:

- » Hand written in blue or black ink
- » Neat and legible
- » On a note card or good quality paper (Lined paper or index cards are not a good choice.)
- » Personalized to the situation

TIP: In the case of a job interview, you may send a thank-you note in email form if the employer will be reaching a decision quickly. The key is to make it personal.
